

Constitution of The Scottish Sunworshipping Society

Solar Cycle 25

Vol. 1, JANUARY IMPRINT 2021

PUBLISHED BY

The Scottish
Sunworshipping
Society

*Saucht in Solshyne's licht
Sìochail ann an Solas na grèine*

Fig 1. Sunspots at the last Solar Maximum in Cycle 24, recorded April 2014.

All details in this document and references to outside sources were correct at time of publishing. The Scottish Sunworshipping Society is not a regulatory body and does not take any responsibility for its members. We exist to encourage the safe enjoyment and educational benefits of engaging with our nearest Star and are not a religious or spiritual organisation.

1. Name & Location

The name of the group shall be known and referred to as The Scottish Sunworshipping Society.

The Scottish Sunworshipping Society can be found wherever a member takes time to exalt the Sun in Scotland. Notices and documentation can be found on Twitter @SunworshipSoc and the website of founder Morvern Odling.
www.morvernoding.co.uk

2. Aims & Objectives

A] To encourage exaltation of the Sun, via varying means, throughout the year in Scotland.

B] To educate, promote and enlighten people on the Sun and the benefits of Scottish Sunworship.

C] Through intentional Sun time, to be peaceful and connected to our environment, becoming champions for the protection and conservation of Scotland.

D] Make public knowledge facts regarding to section 2a, 2b and 2c, by collecting and displaying them by way of website/s, publications or other means.

E] To encourage gatherings of members for the exaltation and enjoyment of the sun, in relation to section 2a, 2b and 2c.

F] To create and support projects and campaigns, without being political or religious, which would bring awareness Scottish Sunworshipping.

G] To encourage members to take solace and inspiration from our Sun.

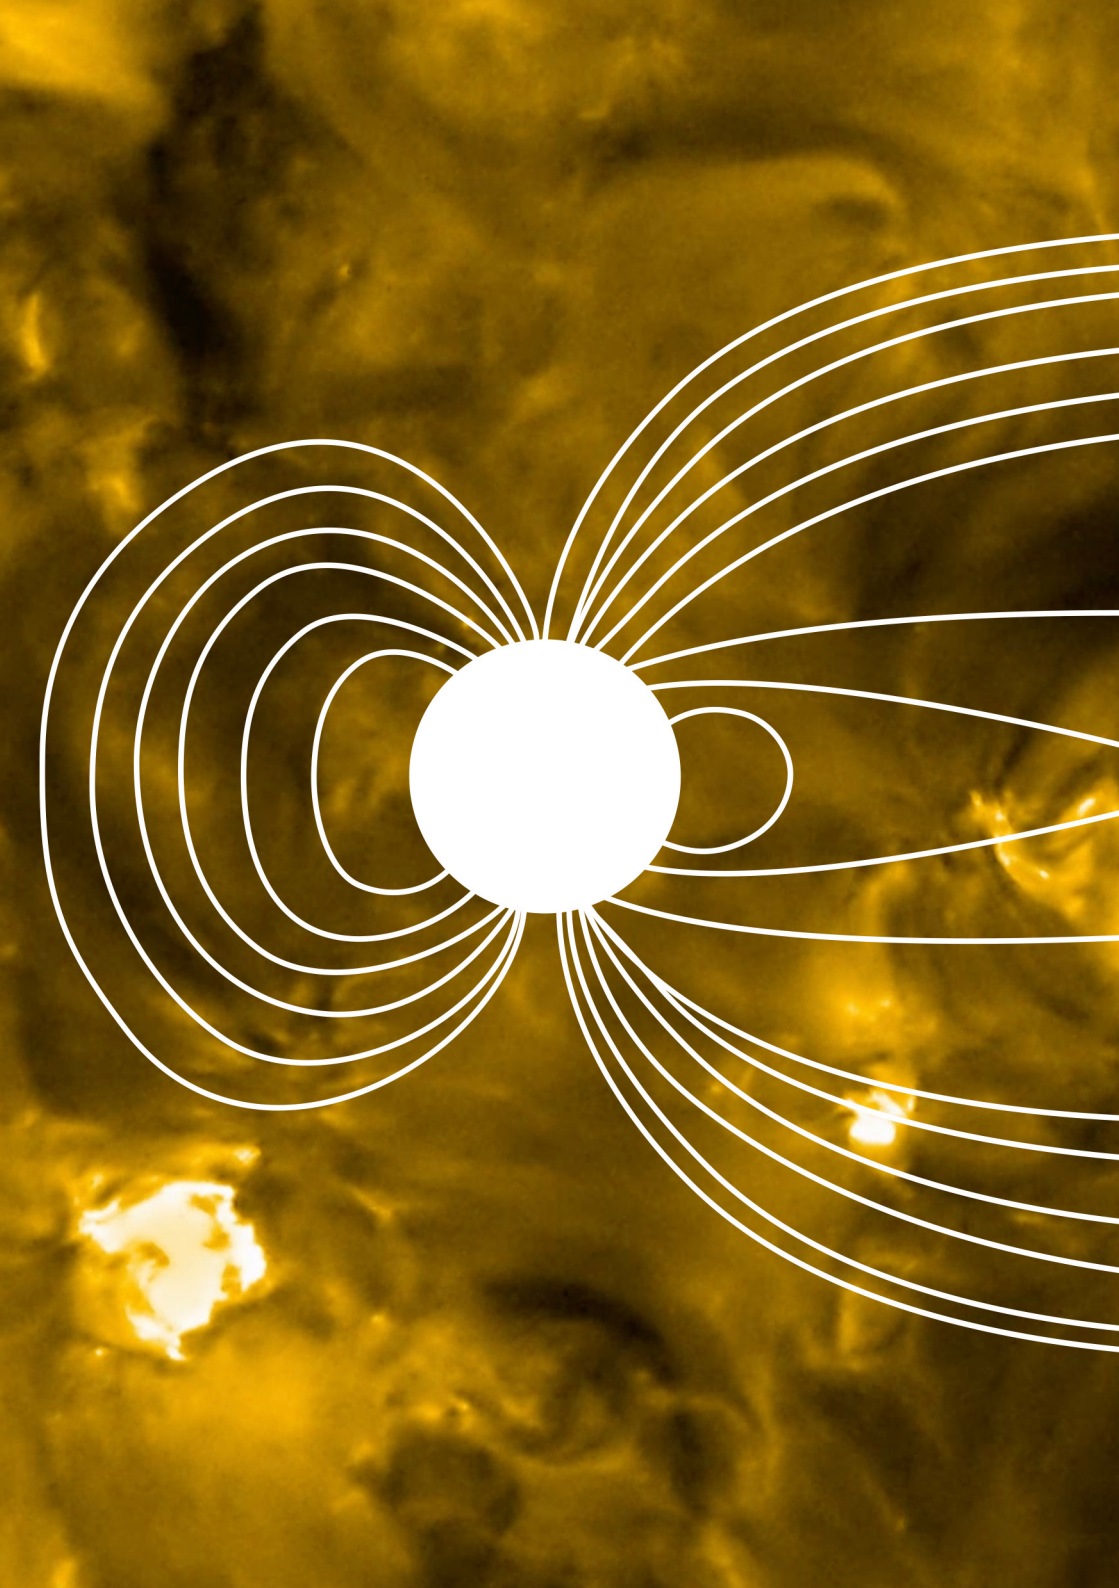

3. Membership

A] Membership is open to anyone who agrees to endorse and promote the Aims and Objectives, Rules and Constitution of The Scottish Sunworshipping Society.

B] There are no membership fees and no formal central governing body, all members shall be identifiable only by their own admission. Otherwise The Scottish Sunworshipping Society is anonymous.

C] All members shall be responsible for maintaining their membership to the society through their own means.

D] New members will be subject to the same regulations as existing ones. From the point of joining you will be able to have the rights, benefits and privileges of being a full member of The Scottish Sunworshipping Society.

Fig 2. - see inside back cover

E] Should any member of The Scottish Sunworshipping Society wish to tender their resignation, this should be done either via another member, or simply by no longer identifying as a member.

F] Through any gathering or meeting all member pledged information will be kept in the strictest confidence and will not be disclosed to any third parties.

4. Conduct

A] Proper respect should be given to our Sun. Scottish Sunworshippers never look directly at the sun, recognising the danger. The use of UVA & UVB filter sunglasses is recommended and members should properly apply sunscreen year-round. The Scottish Sunworshipping Society does not support unhealthy or dangerous practices and due consideration should be given by all members undertaking worship.

A1] All adult members of The Scottish Sunworshipping society take responsibility for younger members.

B] Members should take time to enjoy Scottish Sun, in both urban and wild contexts.

C] To the best of their ability members should consider treading lightly, and endeavour to reduce, reuse and recycle.

D] When in the Scottish Countryside members should adhere to the Scottish Outdoor Access Code, see * <https://www.outdooraccess-scotland.scot/> . Scottish Sunworshippers never litter.

E] Sunworship takes many forms and is highly individual. Any and all forms of worship are accepted, providing they meet the rules and regulations of The Scottish Sunworshipping Society. The Scottish Sunworshipping Society does not tolerate or condone any discriminatory behaviours.

Fig 3. Sunspots at the Cycle 23 Solar Maximum, recorded November 2001.

5. Ordinary Meetings

A] Ordinary meetings are held when one or more members take time with the intention of Sun Worshipping or planning for future worship.

B] Meetings should primarily be held outdoors, with consideration given to the climate. Sunscreen is essential year-round and adequate clothing should be worn in winter.

C] When skin is bared to the Sun, consideration for others sharing the surroudnings must be taken into account.

6. Gatherings

A] The Scottish Sunworshipping Society does not host any events. However any member of the society may hold one, if it complies with section 2a, 2b and 2c. Notices of any public gatherings can be sent to the Scottish Sunworshipping Society Twitter account for circulation.

A.1] The organising member of the gathering should share in writing the date, time and location - any interested members can find out about these gatherings via the Twitter page.

B] Members should consider safety, accessibility and their commitment to the protection of the environment when organising gatherings.

B.1] Due to the corona virus pandemic group gatherings must only take place within the local restrictions.

7. Affiliations

The Scottish Sunworshipping Society does not have any allegiance to any political or religious parties, groups or organisations.

"A First for NASA's IRIS: Observing a Gigantic Eruption of Solar Material" by NASA Goddard Photo is licensed under CC BY 2.0

